1. Purpose

This policy applies to all ibex Global employees worldwide, including part time, temporary, and contract employees.

2. Scope

ibex Global is committed to the highest possible standards of ethical, moral, and legal business conduct. In conjunction with this commitment, this policy aims to provide an incentive to encourage employees to raise concerns about ethical violations with reassurance that they will be protected from retaliation for reporting in good faith. In return for reporting a serious ethics violation in good faith, ibex Global is offering a potential reward up to a monetary value of US$10,000 subject to the terms of this policy and the review and determination by the ibex Ethics Committee.

3. Policy

This reward policy is intended to cover serious ethical breaches by ibex personnel that could have a significant impact on ibex Global financially and reputationally, such as actions that:

- May lead to incorrect financial reporting;
- Are unlawful;
- Constitute a breach of the ibex Global Code of Conduct;
- May compromise our relationship with our clients or their customer; or
- Otherwise amount to serious improper conduct.

Examples include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Sales Fraud
- Bribery
- Falsification of records
- Customer Information Fraud
- Time Theft/Payroll Fraud
- Credit Card Fraud
- Illegal Application/System Usage
- Conflict of Interest
- Intentional Incorrect Sale to Customers
- Survey Manipulation

The determination of what constitutes a serious ethical breach with significant impact remains within the sole discretion of the Company.

3.1. Confidentiality

- 3.1.1 Any employee who detects, identifies, witnesses, or knows of or has reasonable grounds for suspecting misconduct on the part of another ibex Global employee is encouraged to report it. Ibex Global has engaged Lighthouse Services to be its third-party ethics and compliance hotline provider for reporting concerns. However, employees are encouraged to report concerns to their supervisor or HR at any time, and are not required to utilize the hotline. Every effort will be made to protect the informant's identity throughout the process.

- 3.1.2 Please note that it is possible that as a result of the information provided in a report the informant's identity may become known during the course of the investigation; however, ibex Global will use its reasonable efforts to protect the identity of disclosing employees. Informants to the hotline will continue to have the ability to remain anonymous if an employee chooses. If and when a reward is authorized by the ibex Ethics Committee, the employee will need to make his/her identity known in order to receive the reward.

4. Procedure

4.1. Reporting & Investigation

- 4.1.1 Employees shall follow the Fraud & Ethics Hotline Policy guidelines for reporting concerns. Employment-related concerns should continue to be reported through normal channels such as your supervisor or local HR representative.
- 4.1.2 The action taken will depend on the nature of the concern. Reports are submitted by Lighthouse to ibex Global or its designee, and may or may not be investigated at the sole discretion of the Company. ibex Global is committed to conducting an appropriate and timely response to each report submitted through the hotline, as well as appropriate and timely closure to those allegations which proceed to the investigation process.

4.2. Reward

- 4.2.1 Whether reported directly to ibex Global personnel or through the hotline, the individual submitting a report will be given the opportunity to receive follow-up on their concern:
- 4.2.1.1 Acknowledging that the concern was received;
 - 4.2.1.2 Indicating how the matter will be dealt with;
 - 4.2.1.3 Giving an estimate of the time that it will take for a final response;
 - 4.2.1.4 Indicating whether the report is eligible for a reward.
- 4.2.2 The Company maintains sole discretion to determine whether an informant is eligible for a reward and the amount thereof. To determine eligibility, the Company will assess criteria such as, but not limited to, whether the information provided was original and timely; whether the information provided was sufficient to initiate an investigation into the described behaviors; whether the investigation resulted in formal disciplinary or criminal proceedings against the wrongdoer(s); and the level of assistance and cooperation provided by the informant throughout the process.
- 4.2.3 The Company decides in its sole discretion the disbursement and level of reward, including the type of reward, the amount and the means of distribution. Any reward provided is subject to confidentiality. Nothing in this policy is intended to create any type of right to or expectation of compensation.

5. Safeguards

5.1. Retaliation

- 5.1.1 Harassment or victimization of individuals submitting hotline reports will not be tolerated. ibex Global expressly prohibits any form of retaliation against employees who in good faith and for lawful purposes report, cause to be reported, or assist in the investigation of suspected improper, unethical, or illegal conduct or activities by anyone in the company.
- 5.1.2 If an employee believes that he or she has been retaliated against (including direct or indirect threats or harassment), he or she should report it to his or her immediate supervisor or local HR representative. If an employee feels uncomfortable reporting such retaliation to his or her supervisor or HR, the employee may report the retaliation directly through the Fraud & Ethics Hotline.
- 5.1.3 This policy does NOT form a contract and does not commit the Company to provide a reward in any given circumstance. The Company maintains sole discretion as to all aspects of the reward program, including but not limited to interpretation of the policy, reward eligibility; payment of the reward; and reward amount. The final determination of the payment, if any, shall be at the sole discretion of the ibex Ethics Committee and is not subject to appeal.

6. Enforcement

The enforcement/implementation of this policy may be modified from location to location contingent upon country, province, state and local employment laws and/or regulations. ibex Global reserves the right to modify or amend this policy at any time as it may deem necessary.
