Social Media and Media Relations Policy

Social Media and Media Relations Policy

Effective January 1, 2025

Purpose

This policy outlines the standards ibex employees, Company (or “ibex”), and ibex’s representatives shall conduct themselves while using via social media and in any interactions with external media. This policy applies to both Company-sponsored and personal social media uses as it relates to ibex and/or its legitimate business issues. Remember to protect our brand, protect yourself.

Eligibility

All ibex employees and Company representatives are required to follow this policy.

Policy Provisions

1. Social Media Policy

Social media has become an integral part of our daily lives. Social media includes all means of communicating or posting information or content of any sort on the Internet, including to your own or someone else’s web page or blog, journal, social networking site, web bulletin boards or chat rooms, or any other form of electronic communication.

Social media allows us to keep in touch with friends and family, informs us about our world, and gives us a platform to be heard. When using social media, ibex encourages all employees and Company representatives to use sound judgment and common sense, adhere to our Company values, and follow the ibex Code of Conduct and all other applicable ibex policies.

Keep in mind that you are solely responsible for what you post online regardless of where posts occur. Before creating and posting online content, consider some of the risks and rewards to both you and Company that are involved. Any social media comments or conduct posted that adversely affects your job performance, the performance of fellow employees or otherwise adversely affects (including, but not, limited to the reputations) clients, customers, suppliers, people who work on behalf of the Company or the Company’s legitimate business interests may result in disciplinary action.

All ibex social media content and messages, including private and public chat groups/rooms and messaging platforms, must be approved by the ibex Social Media Team in advance. The Social Media Team is responsible for review and approval for all new groups, monitoring content, and overseeing participants. This will prevent unmonitored groups or chats within our official company pages and accounts. While staying connected through social media is important, unmonitored content poses a risk.

Social Media and Media Relations Policy

Social Media Guidelines:

- Maintain the confidentiality of the Company's trade secrets and private or confidential information. Trade secrets may include information regarding the development of systems, processes, products, know-how and technology.
 - Do not post pictures / video / audio that disclose any confidential information (including pictures / audio / video taken at ibex work site, whether such site is your home or an ibex facility).
- Due to the nature of our business, employees may be required to sign confidentiality and non-disclosure agreements.
 - Do not post content that discloses confidential information such as computer screens, client name, logos, or branding.
 - Do not post internal reports, policies, procedures, or other internal business-related confidential communications.
- Avoid posting statements, photographs, video or audio that reasonably could be viewed as malicious, obscene, threatening, or intimidating, that disparage customers, employees or suppliers, that might constitute harassment or bullying, or otherwise violate applicable law or public policy.
 - Examples of such conduct might include offensive posts meant to intentionally harm someone's reputation or posts that could contribute to a hostile work environment based on race, sex, disability, religion, or any other status protected by law or Company policy.
- Respect financial disclosure laws. It is illegal to communicate or give a "tip" on inside information to others so that they may buy or sell stocks or securities. Such online conduct may also violate the Insider Trading Policy.
- Do not represent yourself as a spokesperson for the Company. If the Company is a subject of the content being created and/or posted by you, you should be clear and open about the fact that you are an employee and make it clear that your views are solely your opinions and your posting/publication does not represent the opinions of ibex (including its officers and management), its fellow employees, clients' customers, or suppliers.
- If a potential scammer or threat actor contacts you, avoid discussing ibex and/or program information over social media, such as customer and the like.
- Engage the ibex Social Media Team (social@ibex.co) before setting up or participating in private or public chat groups/rooms. Get approval from the ibex Social Media Team before using online messaging platforms, such as Facebook Messenger, for ibex content or messaging.

Social Media and Media Relations Policy

2. Media Relations Policy

The ibex Public Relations (PR) Team is responsible for all media relations which effect the Company or its legitimate business interests. This policy is designed to help ensure the most consistent and positive image of ibex is presented to the public.

The PR Team strives to anticipate and manage crisis situations to reduce disruption to our employees and maintain our reputation as a leader in our industry. To best serve these objectives, the Company will respond to the news media in a timely and professional manner only through designated spokespersons.

Media Relations Guidelines:

- All external media requests for the Company will be managed by the ibex PR Team. This helps avoid potential miscommunication that may cause confusion and/or damage our brand.
- If you are contacted by a representative of the media (television, radio, newspaper, magazine, etc.), refer them directly to the PR Team (daniel.burris@ibex.co) and do not respond on behalf of the Company.
- Media requests can include a variety of items such as requests for photos, interviews, or quotes on behalf of the Company or a client.
- Unless approved in advance by the PR Team, media representatives (reporters, photographers, camera crews, etc.) are not permitted inside an ibex facility or an employee's designated home worksite, as applicable, due to the confidential nature of company and client information.

Retaliation

ibex prohibits taking negative action against any employee for reporting a possible deviation from this policy or for cooperating in an investigation. Any employee who retaliates against another employee for reporting a possible deviation from this policy or for cooperating in an investigation will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including separation of employment.

Compliance

Compliance with the Policy is expected. Any employee who manipulates or attempts to manipulate use of the Policy or related documentation for personal benefit will be subject to corrective action up to and including separation of employment.
